NRA Instructor Classes

The Livermore-Pleasanton Rod & Gun Club proudly announces NRA instructor classes. For those qualified and interested in passing along basic firearms knowledge, skills, and attitudes, you can become certified as an NRA instructor. The courses includes the necessary training to develop teaching skills as well as the specific skills to present selected NRA course material.

The Shotgun Instructor Course is an 18-hour course. The first day will focus primarily on instructional skills and the second day will focus on the skills necessary to present the NRA Basic Shotgun and First Steps Shotgun courses. The $250 course fee covers all range and classroom fees, books, targets, firearms, ammunition and instruction.

The two-day class will be held on Saturday, February 18 and Sunday, February 19 from 9am to 6pm. Bring eye & ear protection.
