

Livermore Club Shoot 6 results

5 July 2009

Shoot 6 turned out to be a nice summer day. Not too hot, not too cold. But only if those windmills at Altamont would stop generating wind! There were 50 shooters: seven new, four returning from 2008, and two new to club shoots but old-time shooters. Even Kathy Luich got out of the office to dust off her prized shotgun! Congratulations goes to the SCTP JV squad that won 1st place at this year's SCTP State Shoot at Kingsburg last month. All five boys (Austin Hull, Robby Mariani, Cole Rao, Casey Swasey, and Cory Wing) were shooting at this month's Club Shoot and most shot top scores in their classifications. Next stop is Nationals at Sparta, Illinois. LPR&GC Club Shoot office staff wishes them the best of luck and everyone's proud of their hard work! Contact Coach Thomas (t4jamm@comcast.net) if you want to help donate funds for the kids' Sparta trip. Thanks goes out to Bob Lee who donated his Club Shoot winnings to the SCTP kids.

The AAA shooters weren't the ones to shoot perfect scores in singles this time around. Warren Price and Cory Wing achieved that honor. Bob Graves was top gun for HOA, long yardage, and tied for AAA singles with a 49. Casey Swasey, another SCTP shooter and new to Club Shoots, won B singles with a high of 49. Cole Rao won short yardage with a 48. Austin Hull backed in to winning High Junior with a 93. And another SCTP shooter, Mary Stapleton, tied with Debbie Roark for High Lady with an 87.

Try a stab at the Handicap Buddy and Lewis Class Purses. Only $5 for each! More shooters, more payouts. The perfect 50s purse now stands at $560. There was one winner in the singles (37) and multiple winners in the handicap (42) Mystery Contests. Luckily, no winners in the combined event (74). Don Anglin won a shooters shot glass. Debbie Roark, Gloria Garcia, Gary Presley, Adam Mariani, and Bart Clowdus all won an American flag for the holiday weekend. Prizes change every month. Remember 50 rounds of Winchester Heavy Target loads goes to anyone who can break a 50 at handicap, ties split!

Next shoot is August 23rd, just in time for back to school. Windows open at 9am, shooting starts at 10am. Complimentary breakfast goodies and Diana will be serving lunch for a nominal price.
